TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

OCTOBER 7, 2018

From the beginning of creation,
God made them male and female.
For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and
be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh.

Visiting Priest to Join Us October 20th Weekend

I have extended an invitation to Rev. Robert M. Beirne to come to our parish on the weekend of October 20-21, 2018. Fr. Beirne will speak to you about the work being done by Unbound (previously called CFCA), and how this provides a trustworthy way to actively participate in the social outreach of the Church and answer the Gospel call to serve the poor.

Founded by lay Catholics, Unbound is an organization that has served more than 600,000 children, youth and elderly in 18 developing countries since 1981, empowering them to make more choices in their lives, live with dignity and reach their potential.

Unbound's unique sponsorship program is highly personalized. It matches a child, youth or aging person at a project overseas with a sponsor in the United States who cares about and encourages the person. With a monthly contribution, a sponsor helps to provide much needed nourishing food, medical and dental care, the chance for a child to go to school, livelihood programs for families and much more. All of these efforts are directed at affirming the dignity of every person in their local community.

Please join me in welcoming Fr. Beirne to our parish.

Sincerely, Fr. Morgewicz

Pope Names Fr. Juan Miguel Betancourt Torres Auxiliary Bishop for Archdiocese of Hartford

Pope Francis has appointed as Auxiliary Bishop of Hartford the Reverend Juan Miguel Betancourt Torres, SEMV, assigning him the Titular See of Curzola.

The Bishop-elect was ordained a priest on April 21, 2001. He currently serves on the faculty of The St. Paul Seminary School of Divinity in St. Paul, Minnesota, as Vice Rector of Formation, Associate Academic Dean and Assistant Professor of Sacred Scripture. He is also the Pastor of the Church of St. Francis de Sales of St. Paul in St. Paul, Minnesota.

"I feel honored and very grateful for the Lord's call to serve with all my heart the people of the Archdiocese of Hartford, under the pastoral and fatherly care of Archbishop Leonard P. Blair," Bishop-elect Betancourt said in advance of the announcement.

Bishop-elect Betancourt is a member of the Society of the Servants of the Eucharist and Mary (Esclavos de la Eucaristia y de Maria Virgen), which he joined after graduation from college. He presently serves as Vicar General of the community. It is a contemplative community founded in Puerto Rico, centered on Eucharistic adoration and Marian consecration, and is part of the International Schoenstatt Movement.

He is a graduate of the University of Puerto Rico with a Bachelor in Natural Sciences, and received a Master of Divinity degree from the Pontifical Catholic University of Puerto Rico in Ponce. Following his priestly ordination, he earned a Licentiate (S.S.L.) in Sacred Scripture from the Pontifical Biblical Institute in Rome. Fluent in English, Spanish and Italian, he has proficiency in other languages as well.

In making public the appointment of Father Betancourt, Archbishop Blair of Hartford said that: "Coming as it does on the eve of the 175th anniversary of the Archdiocese in November, the appointment of Father Betancourt is a cause of rejoicing not only for me personally, but for all our clergy, religious and laity. For me and for our clergy it means the welcome arrival of a dedicated co-worker in the Lord's vineyard who brings a variety of talents and of experience to our shared ministry. For the laity of the Archdiocese in all its present-day diversity, Fr. Betancourt's Hispanic/Latino heritage will only enhance the pastoral care that he will exercise for the good of everyone of every race and ethnicity. For those in religious life, Fr. Betancourt's membership in the Society of the Servants of the Eucharist and Mary only serves to underscore the value and contribution that consecrated religious men and women make to the good of the church."

All are invited to participate in his Episcopal Ordination on Thursday, October 18, at 2 p.m. at the Cathedral of St. Joseph, 140 Farmington Avenue, Hartford, CT 06105.

Open House at Sacred Heart Academy (High School)

Sunday, October 14 from 1:00 p.m. to 3 p.m. the Academy, an independent Catholic college preparatory school for young women in grades 9-12 will host an open house.

The Academy is located at 265 Benham Street in Hamden. For more information call Elaine Lamboley, at 203-288-2309, ext. 307.

Parish Hall Dedicated in Fr. McGivney's Name

This past weekend we rejoiced and celebrated in the naming of our Church Hall. We see all around, in our parish buildings, the importance of those faithful brothers and sisters that have gone before us, building for future generations that we now enjoy the benefits.

Recognizing the leadership and vision of the pastor who built this house of worship dedicated to the Lord we remember Fr. John McGivney. As pastor for 23 years he worked tirelessly to meet the needs of the people by constructing this Church to serve them then and us now.

Fr. John McGivney had two brothers who were also priests: Patrick who was pastor of St. Charles in Bridgeport and Michael, the Servant of God who founded the Knights of Columbus right here in New Haven.

May we be inspired by our Fr. McGivney and his two brothers and recognize their dedication to almighty God every time we enter this Hall.

Special Thanks!

A special note of thanks to all those who came out to the picnic last weekend and for those who cooperated and attended the 11:30 Mass as requested.

Members of the Hospitality Committee are especially recognized for organizing food for the day and the Knights of Columbus for their leadership in naming of the Hall with signs.
